

Tregolls Academy

Spring Term 2 - Week 1

Head of School Message

Welcome back from a wet and windy half term. I hope that the children are feeling refreshed as we move towards hopefully some warmer Spring weather. We have had a brilliant week at Tregolls with some amazing learning taking place. What it so lovely is that our children seamlessly fall back into their expected routines and their behaviour is excellent. Yesterday we were fortunate to have a visit from Floyd Steadman. He spoke at length to our Year 5 and 6 pupils about his life from a child in care to a professional rugby player and the first black man to captain Saracens. He is now in the army and has recently been awarded an MBE. It was so inspirational to hear him speak and really resonated with our children. They behaved impeccably and asked some really insightful questions.

A group of Year 5 and 6 children have gone to represent us in a netball tournament today, I will let you know how they get on next week. We also have our Year 3 and 4 children who will be heading off to compete in the next round of the sports hall athletics. I will be taking a group of children to New County Hall to work with other schools on what it takes to be a councillor and the impact they can have on the community.

There are lots of exciting opportunities planned over the next few weeks to keep checking on our social media page.
Mr Rees

Early Help Hub

The right help
At the right time
By the right service

What does the Early Help Hub do?

- The Early Help Hub is the single point of access for professionals, families and young people to access Early Help Services in Cornwall
- The triage team decides which Early Help service best meets the needs identified in the request for help. It is then allocated to the appropriate service within 48 hours
- Support is provided: from pre-birth up to the age of 18, (or 25 when young people have additional needs) when the child, young person or family has needs that are not met solely by universal services

Are you worried about a child or young person?

If you think a child or young person might be suffering neglect or abuse contact the Multi Agency Referral Unit (MARU)

If you see something, say something

Whilst you may be concerned about involving our services, we do more than check up on children and young people's welfare.
If a family is struggling, we can organise early help and support for them, before any problems become harder to solve.

What information do I need to give?
The more detail you are able to provide, the better we will be able to help.
If you have noticed that something wrong, other people might have too. A teacher, health visitor or other person that knows the family might have already alerted us, and your knowledge might fill in some missing information that can help.
