Autumn Term 2- Week 2

Head of School Message

This week has been another full of interesting developments for the school. We had our first monitoring visit from Ofsted which spanned two days. They reviewed our action plan and whether or not leaders were taking effective action to remove the inadequate grading. A letter will be sent to parents within the next 18 working days which will summarise their findings.

Thank you for all of the positive parent feedback. It was a positive visit with lots of strengths recognised.

Next week is parent consultations, if you haven't managed to book an appointment, please see your class teacher.

Have a lovely weekend,
Mr Rees

What is 'bullying'?

At Tregolls, we know that bullying is RIP:

R

Harmful behaviour is REPEATED. It happens again and again over time.

Harmful behaviour is INTENTIONAL. Someone is deliberately trying to cause physical or emotional harm to someone else.

P

There is an imbalance of POWER between the person showing harmful behaviour and the person being harmed.
